Various informations

Derived Products

I have surfed on E-Bay, Amazon and the internet as an attempt to make a complete list of all derived non game products that has been sold with the Duel Masters name on it. There are so much things out there so don't expect the list to be complete. If you ever find other ones, send me the information and try to get pictures. You can click on almost all the pictures below to get a bigger view but sometime the full picture is not as big as you would want. In these case, I am sorry, I take the pictures I can find on the net and that's about it. Even if I own the item, I don't have a numeric camera.

Card Shooter

It seems to be some sort of device that you strap to your hand and place your cards in them. Besides being cool, it is not really useful. It might also damage the cards with time, I am not sure if you can use cards with plastic sleeves in it.

Card Sleeves

These sleeves has the duel master tag and are available in the 5 civilisation colors. I am not sure if it is only the back that is colored or if it is the whole sleeves. If the front is translucent and colored, it might get more difficult to see the cards or you might get new color mix that creates new civilisation like purple, cyan (^_^).

DEX

This is an electronic device that contains the list of the duel master cards with a small picture shown on the lcd screen. The problem is that I don't think that there is anyways to update the content of the database. So you won't be able to keep track of new card collection. That's why I thought it could be cool to make a software like this for other portable console like gameboy and gamepark.

Folder

This is something I bought on ebay, it was probably distributed as a promotion. It is a folder that contains a list of cards from DM01 to DM05, a few promotional information and 2 sheets of stickers. I definitely bought it for the sticker sheets.

Stickers

These are simple duel master sticker. There are not the same than those found in the folder above. The pictures on these stickers are not really good compared to those found in the folder.

Coloring Book

This item is probably only available in Japan. It's a bag that contains either a book or sheets of paper to colorize with tools of your choice.

Magazine

Of course, the official magazine. I have never seen one yet, so I can't really talk about the content, but I assume that it talks about the card game, the comics and the TV show plus other promotional stuff.

Comic Book

Here is the comic book which has probably some relations with the TV show (unless it is not the same story). Never seen it but from what I have heard, it sucks!

Action Figure

I think there are at most a dozen of different action figures. They are generally the super rare cards found in the first collection. You cannot really play with in the game, it's simply a toy.

Miniatures

That's something I found nice, there is one pack for each civilisation. It would have been cool to make some sort of board game like chess with these miniatures, unfortunately there are too expensive for board game components.

Other Action Figures

The packaging seems different than the previous one so I think it's a different collection of action figures.

Puzzle Poster

This is a puzzle that create a poster with Duel Masters creature on it when finished. There is nothing else special about it.

Mini Puzzles

That something that I found interesting but I could not find any of these. it simply a small puzzle, but I like the small size that can fit easily on a wall.

Puzzle 100 pieces

Another puzzle, I have a picture of the assembled puzzle with the box

DVD and Watch

As a title say, it is a DVD that probably contains TV series episodes plus a promotional watch.

DVD

Again, some DVD which should contains TV series episodes

Blanket

Wow, so cool. I really like this one even if it does not fit with the colors in my room. It is simply a blanket that you use to cover the bed. They are probably only available only for kids bed size.

Costume

This is a cheap halloween costume. It pretty hard to make duel masters costumes since almost all creatures found in the game are not humanoid. For example, I cannot see myself being disguised as a phantom fish.

T-Shirt

And of course, the T-shirt. The most common form of derived product. It is the item that allows you to say "Been there, done that, got a T-Shirt". Unfortunately, I don't think there are adult size T-Shirt.

Pyjamas

Why not sleep with a Duel Masters Pyjama so that you could dream about all the cards that you could get. Play some games while dreaming too!

Clock and Watch

Keep your self in time with the duel masters clock and watch. You'll now see more duel masters stuff everytime you look at the time.

Alarm Clock

Why not summon a Mighty shouter to wake you up in the morning with this wonderful alarm clock.

Calendar

Keep your self up to date with the duel masters calendar. Unfortunately, I only have the picture of the cover.
